Home Learning Expectations

February briefing, 2025

Reading every day: the power of 1:1 reading

The expectation is that every child reads at home (or is read to by an adult) every day.

Where it is such a key life skill, we feel this sits at the very top of our home learning priorities.

Please do have a look on the reading section of our website as there is a range of information on how best to support your child with reading:

→ Early Reading | Subjects | Curriculum | Avonwood Primary School

Reading

- Record reading (including genre) (ideally daily)
- Reading records must be in school every day.
- Read with expression and pay attention to the punctuation used
- Ideas for questions and activities to use when reading with your child
- Teachers will acknowledge reading records every Monday but may also check these throughout the week
- Books will be changed on Friday.

Reading 'High 5'

- Bring your reading record in every day.
- An adult will check your record every Monday.
- Once you have read five times (this does not have to be in the same week and weekends can be included) an adult will tick the 'High 5' reading chart and you will be given a pom -pom for our class jar!
- When the jar is full of pom -poms, our class will get time to celebrate our success together with a reading raffle activity chosen by the children!

You're a Bad Man, Mr Gum by Andy Stanton

Good evening. Mr Gum is a complete horror who hates children, animals, fun and corn on the cob. This book's all about him. And an angry fairy who lives in his bathtub. And Jake the dog, a little girl called Polly and an evil, stinky butcher all covered in guts. And there's heroes and sweets and adventures and EVERYTHING.

Fangs by Malorie Blackman

Poor Fangs, the tarantula, is terribly lonely and bored with her life in the pet-shop. So when Nathan takes her home, she's more than excited about her new life. But before Nathan can introduce his new pet to his family, he's going to need her help to convince them that spiders aren't just creepy and crawly ... They're beautiful and brave too!

The Cat in the Hat by Dr Seuss

Poor Sally and her brother. It's cold and wet and they're stuck in the house with nothing to do ... until a giant cat in a hat shows up, transforming the dull day into a madcap adventure and almost wrecking the place in the process.

Sam Wu is Not Afraid of Ghosts by Katie & Kevin Tsang

Poems to Perform by Julia Donaldson

Volcanoes: National Geographic

The cool story of volcanoes will intrigue kids and adults alike. Anne Shreiber's level 3 narrative gives readers a little of the science, a little of the history, and a lot of the action. National geographic photography fires the imagination on dramatic spreads alive with vivid images of lava, ash, molten rock, weird rocks, and steaming seawater.

Secrets of a Sun King by Emma Carroll

When Lillian Kaye finds a parcel on her grandad's doorstep, she is shocked to see who sent it: a famous Egyptologist, found dead that very morning, according to every newspaper in England! The mysterious package holds the key to a story about a king whose tomb archaeologists are desperately hunting for. Lil and her friends must return the package to its resting place, protect those they love, and break the deadly pharaoh's curse ...
